An evening to remember

April Highlights

Brunch & bake with the teens, Easter, all the pink guys (!), making it through 1 year as a pediatric dietitian and having more questions than when I started, clarification about my next calling, new spiritual disciplines, seeing family and a sweet friend in NYC, Costa Rica, more reasons to practice German.

May's Highlights

ESL graduation, long car ride conversations and exploring NYC together, swapping stories with my train buddy, dinners on the deck before sunset walks with my parents, swishing my paintbrush through watercolors, lifegiving hours of conversation with my "sister," intergenerational and interfaith friendships that leave me awestruck.

Nearly a year full of one second at a time (turn 10-15 minute train ride) conversations with my train buddy - he's shared photos of his kids, stories about his Ireland adventures - and he and his wife celebrated an anniversary this May!

ALL NATIONS
ARE WELCOME

*Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in all the earth!*

PSALM 46:10

Whatever you are seeking in your work—the city of justice and peace, the world of brilliance and beauty, the story, the order, the healing it is there. There is a God, there is a future healed world that he will bring about, and your work is showing it (in part) to others. Your work will be only partially successful, on your best days, in bringing that world about. But inevitably the whole tree that you seek—the beauty, harmony, justice, comfort, joy, and community will come to fruition.

Laura

I wish everyone could experience the deep joy of having a best friend do life by your side since birth. Infinitely grateful for the supernatural signs we receive through one another. Unbeknownst to either of us, we started reading the same book at the same time ✨
